

Italy & Berlin Private Tour

Please note that all of the itineraries listed in our web site are actual private tour itineraries we have prepared for clients over the past 12-18 months. By the very nature of what we do, each private tour itinerary is custom, exclusive and unique unto itself. Our over-riding goal is to create lifelong memories that you and your family will forever carry deep within your hearts.

Overview

With a history spanning 2,500 years, the “Eternal City” of Rome is simply overwhelming in terms of ancient monuments and history, too numerous to name! The city’s obsession with aesthetics fuses with a wonderful urban lifestyle and ancient history. Della Valle described the Florence/Siena area of Italy as, “Total aesthetic perfection; a synthesis of everything that is beautiful about Italy.” — we agree! An extension to the hip city of Berlin creates a fascinating contrast to Italy’s sophistication. Though younger than the ancient cities in Italy, Berlin carries a rich, war-torn history of its own. Rick Steves wrote that “Berliners joke that they don’t need to travel anywhere because their city’s always changing.”

Day 1

Fly U.S./Rome

Through our sister company, premium air provider TRAVNET, we may assist with your international airfare, as well as with mileage points conversion.

Day 2

Arrive Rome

Upon arrival at Rome’s Fiumicino/Leonardo da Vinci International Airport, you will be transferred to the Hotel Eden or Hotel de Russie. You may spend the remainder of the day exploring Rome on your own, with our suggestions.

Hotel Eden

Having recently stayed at the renovated 98-room

Hotel Eden, we now consider this property to be our new favorite, number one, luxury hotel in Rome! Located near the via Veneto and the Spanish steps, the Eden's turn-of-the-century building renovation was led by French designers, Bruno Moinard and Claire Betaille. All rooms are dressed in classic Italian furnishings and feature large windows and marble baths. We particularly enjoy the Eden's rooftop La Terrazza restaurant and its panoramic views of Rome. Other amenities include a very nice spa, nail salon, and a small gym.

Hotel de Russie

Originally designed in the early 19th-century by noteworthy architect Giuseppe Valadier, the 5-star Hotel de Russie was renovated and opened in 2000 and is located near the Spanish Steps and the Piazza del Popolo (“Peoples’ Square”). Updated by Tommaso Ziffer, we have also used his stunning Berlin property, the Hotel de Rome. The de Russie’s 122 high-tech rooms/suites include simple designs with a nice mix of classic and contemporary furnishings. Perhaps the most pleasing feature here is the hotel’s lush terraced gardens that extend up the hillside, merging with the gardens of Pincio and Villa Borghese. A fun family feature is the de Russie's World Wildlife Fund-sponsored Butterfly Oasis, located in the Secret Garden.

Rome Private Tour

A living museum, you will first visit the iconic Colosseum with the chance to enter the subterranean areas of the arena. Nearby you may explore the Roman Forum to witness the ruins of ancient Rome. After a glance at the Arc of Constantine, you will continue to Pantheon, the most preserved structure in all of Rome. An exploration of Rome's famed piazzas then commences from the Trevi Fountain, Piazza di Spagna, to Piazza Navona.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodations: Hotel Eden or Hotel de Russie

Early-Morning Vatican Private Tour + Pizza!

Today the Vatican City (the smallest state in the world!) awaits you. We feel the best time to experience this is early in the morning. Protected by Swiss Guards in their Renaissance garb, you have the opportunity to visit the expansive St. Peter's Basilica as well as the Vatican Museum, containing an illustrious collection of antiquities. For those with children, you may opt to go to the Gladiator School where the kids embark on a two-hour training session, learning the ways of the gladiator! In the afternoon, you have the option to attend a private cooking session at a Roman pizzeria.

Meals: Breakfast & Lunch

Accommodations: Hotel Eden or Hotel de Russie

Day 5

Train Ride Rome/Florence

Today you will be transferred to the Rome railway station for your First Class train trip (approximately one hour and 10 minutes) to Florence, Italy's Renaissance jewel, few cities can match its classic beauty. After freshening up at the JK Place Hotel, you will embark on a half-day private, guided walking tour of Florence including the following options: Duomo (Cathedral of Santa Maria del Fiore), Galleria dell'Accademia, Museo Galileo, Uffizi Gallery, San Lorenzo Church and Chapels, and Church of Santa Croce.

JK Place Hotel

When traveling with the extended Lynch family we normally stay at the idyllic and sprawling Four Seasons Florence. However, our new Florence 5-star boutique favorite is the 20-room, luxury JK Place Florence. Wonderfully located at the Piazza Santa Maria Novella, we love the property's mix of smart, clean, contemporary amenities and beautiful Florentine aesthetics. Breakfast is a treat here, served in a courtyard beneath a striking glass roof. Staying here has the feel of an elegantly appointed home, not a hotel.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodations: JK Place Hotel

Day 6

Day Trip to Pisa

Following breakfast, you will embark on a guided walking tour, which will include the Piazza dei Miracoli and the famous Leaning Tower (constructed in 1173 and later in 1272, an architectural project gone awry!) Enjoy lunch at your leisure and some time to walk around exploring this wonderful city. At the end of the day, you will be transferred back to your hotel.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodations: JK Place Hotel

Day 7

Transfer Florence/Verona/Venice

Today, you will be privately driven to Venice via Verona (approximately 2.5 hours). In Verona, you will have the option of a short walking tour of lovely, Verona, a historical city and the setting for Shakespeare's play Romeo and Juliet. Of special note is the pink mobile Roman amphitheater (arena), built in the 1st-century A.D. and home to many early gladiator battles. Upon arrival in Venice, you will check in at the Gritti Palace Hotel and enjoy the evening at your leisure.

Gritti Palace Hotel

This 82-room, luxury, boutique hotel is housed in a 16th-century palazzo and is a perfect location on the Grand Canal with views of Santa Maria della Salute. Recent $50 million renovations included handcrafted refurbishment of its treasures, such as guest room mirrors, chandeliers, antique furniture, and artwork. There is also a wonderful new library and several new suites overlooking the Grand Canal, individually decorated with Murano glass light fixtures and exquisite Rubelli fabrics. The Gritti's Club del Dodge Restaurant offers a wonderful terrace on the Grand Canal.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodations: Gritti Palace Hotel

Day 8

Venice Private Tour

Via a private motorboat, you will tour the island of Murano, renowned for its glass making, and thereafter to Burano. An island filled with color and art, this quaint and quiet is not to be missed. After returning to Venice proper, you may wish to stop by the small, lunch-only All'Arco, which we feel is among the tastiest bacaro snack restaurants in Venice! After lunch, you will enjoy a walking tour of Venice with your local guide, including visits to several of the most famous landmarks of the city: The Doges' Palace, St. Mark's Basilica, and St. Mark's Square

Meals: Breakfast & Lunch

Day 9

Fly Venice/Berlin + Berlin Bike Tour

This morning, after breakfast, you will be transferred by private motor launch to the Venice airport for your flight to Berlin. Upon arrival in Berlin, you will be transferred to Rocco Forte Hotel de Rome. The afternoon will be at your leisure. In the evening, your local guide will take you on a bike tour of Berlin, focusing on the high-energy area of Prenzlauer Berg, and several cultural and culinary hotspots, where you will choose a locally-owned restaurant for dinner!

Rocco Forte Hotel de Rome (in Berlin)

Converted from a 19th-century bank headquarters on the historic Bebelplatz off Unter den Linden, the 146-room 5-star Hotel de Rome is a smaller, less noisy (less touristy!) version of the landmark Adlon Hotel. We love the rooms' sleek, contemporary aesthetics, many with high ceilings and particularly nice and spacious bathrooms, limestone vanities, walk-in showers, and mosaic marble tubs. Among the dining options here is the hotel's rooftop terrace, which offers great views of Berlin's historic areas. The Rocco Forte de Rome provides a nice spa, gym, and interesting 65-foot indoor swimming pool (housed in the original bank vault!).

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodations: Rocco Forte Hotel de Rome

Day 10

Berlin Full-Day Private Tour

Following breakfast at the Rocco Forte Hotel, you will be met by your guide and driver for a full-day private tour of Berlin, including the following stopovers: Mauerpark, Gedenkstätte Berliner Mauer, Checkpoint Charlie, Museumsinsel (Museum Island), Reichstag, and the Jewish Museum & Centrum Judaicum.

Meals: Breakfast

Potsdam Excursion

Following breakfast at the Rocco Forte Hotel, you will be met by your guide and driver for a full-day excursion to the historical city of Potsdam. En route, you will make a stop at Wannsee Villa, the locale where in January 1942 the Nazi's agreed upon the "Final Solution". Among your stops in Potsdam will be the Cecilienhof Palace (where the Potsdam Agreement was signed in 1945 by Truman, Stalin, and Churchill), the city's fun, attractive Dutch Quarter (ideal for a late lunch), and the Sanssouci Gardens, the grounds of the royal residence of Frederick the Great.
